KNOW THE BENEFITS

Jobs aren't just about the paycheck you get every month. Every job has its own benefits and perks. Whether it's a health insurance plan, vacation days or your own laptop, a job may appeal to you more because of the benefits the company offers. Do some research on three different jobs for the categories listed below. For example, you might research the benefits of a public school teacher (gov.), lawyer (private) and photographer (freelance). On the next page, list the pros and cons of each job's benefits based on your research.
